The Moot Point Project is an experimental theatre company that provides local communities with artistic outlets and boundary breaking performances. Focusing on radical pieces that provoke audiences into deeper thought we believe in the power of theatre arts and the impact it has on our society.

"In a city where experimental theatre remains scarce, The Moot Point Project's commitment to risk feels both bracing and necessary. "

2026 Upcoming Productions:

*Do You Feel Anger? June 18-21: Expected Reach 300+

Sofia was recently hired as an empathy coach at a debt collection agency—and clearly, she has her work cut out for her. These employees can barely identify what an emotion is, much less practice deep, radical compassion for others. And while they painstakingly stumble towards enlightenment, someone keeps mugging Eva in the kitchen. An outrageous comedy about the absurdity—and the danger—of a world where some people's feelings matter more than others'.

*Rhinoceros Fall 2026: Expected Reach 500+

The sublime is confused with the ridiculous in this savage commentary on the human condition, a staple of 20th century drama. A small town is besieged by one roaring citizen who becomes a rhinoceros and proceeds to trample on the social order.
